There's a quaint little restaurant in Trabuco Canyon that's not just for breakfast! Latte Da Bagelry and Grill, located on Plano Trabuco in the Albertson's shopping center, is open for breakfast, lunch or dinner and has an enormous menu of fresh, homestyle comfort foods - each item available all day long.

Enter this cozy eatery and you'll get a hearty "Good Morning!" from manager

Sylvester or one of his friendly, outgoing servers. The pleasant aromas greet you immediately as your eye is drawn to the interesting chalk illustrations on the menu boards above the counter. The display case is just bursting with over 20 varieties of delicious bagels. Unlike most other bagel shops, Latte Da's New York style bagels are baked fresh every day at their Laguna Hills location and delivered before sunrise.

For those who love breakfast for dinner, or vice versa, Latte Da is the place. Start off your meal with a steamy cup of Diedrich Coffee. The daily brew is

Sumatra, Hawaiian Hazelnut, and Vanilla flavored coffees. Espresso drinks like lattes, or mochas are made with Wiener Melange espresso, ground finely for the richest flavor. Flavored syrups are also available to enhance the latte. Ice-blended mochas with chocolate drizzle and whipped cream, fresh strawberry or banana smoothies, and fresh squeezed orange juice (which is actually squeezed on the premise) are also available.

Highly recommended are the buttermilk pancakes. This family recipe is made from scratch with real buttermilk, and are light and fluffy yet hearty enough for a big appetite. Top them off with fresh blueberries, fresh-cut

Lunch and dinner is equally satisfying with juicy burgers and sandwiches made to order. Latte Da offers dozens of hot or cold sandwich combinations, all served on a choice of over 20 breads or bagels. For dinner, Latte Da goes Italian! The homemade raviolis are pouches of a savory blend of ricotta and mozzarella nestled in a garlic-basil marinara sauce and topped with more gooey mozzarella.

The interior of Latte Da is casual and comfortable. You can dine in or take out, or enjoy the warmer weather at one of their outdoor tables (bring your pet!).
